Indicator	Finding	Source	Source Link
Policies and commitments
General
Human rights policy - UNGPs	"Tesla recognizes the Universal Declaration of Human Rights ("UDHR"), which focuses on dignity, respect, and equality, without discrimination, for all people. We also utilize the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights and the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises."	Tesla Global Human Rights Policy	https://www.tesla.com/legal/additional-resources#global-human-rights-policy
Human rights policy - ILO Core Labor Standards	"Tesla recognizes the International Labour Organization (ILO) definitions for forced labor, modern slavery, and human trafficking and is committed to combating any form of such abuses, including debt bondage, indentured labor, and compulsory prison labor. We are committed to ensuring that our supply chain – from raw materials to final products – is free of such abuses."	Tesla Global Human Rights Policy	https://www.tesla.com/legal/additional-resources#global-human-rights-policy
Forced labor & prison labor	"Tesla recognizes the International Labour Organization (ILO) definitions for forced labor, modern slavery, and human trafficking and is committed to combating any form of such abuses, including debt bondage, indentured labor, and compulsory prison labor. We are committed to ensuring that our supply chain – from raw materials to final products – is free of such abuses."	Tesla Global Human Rights Policy	https://www.tesla.com/legal/additional-resources#global-human-rights-policy
Human rights defenders & civic space	"(Aligned with UDHR Article: 8) Tesla is committed to providing avenues for rights holders and rights defenders to raise potential concerns. We place importance on the provision of effective remedies if a human rights impact were to occur. In such instances, Tesla aims to implement updates to systems, due diligence processes, and practices to prevent similar adverse impacts in the future. As with other processes and systems, Tesla works to continually improve our grievance and remedy processes."	Tesla Global Human Rights Policy	https://www.tesla.com/legal/additional-resources#global-human-rights-policy
Gender equality and women's empowerment	Tesla recognizes the value of different backgrounds and perspectives in our workforce, and fully promotes equal opportunity for all employees, both current and prospective. Just as we do not discriminate on the basis of any characteristic protected by law, regulation or ordinance, we require our suppliers to similarly respect the people in their workforces. To ensure that the principles of fairness and equal opportunity translate into practice, Tesla regularly trains its employees on these expectations and monitors outcomes through grievance mechanisms and workforce sentiment gathering. . Additional information on our supplier expectations relating to equal opportunities in the workplace can be found in our Supplier Code of Conduct.	Tesla Global Human Rights Policy	https://www.tesla.com/legal/additional-resources#global-human-rights-policy
Indigenous Peoples	"Tesla is committed to respecting the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP) and we require suppliers similarly respect UNDRIP. Raw material extraction has historically had an adverse impact on the rights of indigenous peoples and communities in the areas in which they operate."	Relationship with Communities & Indigenous Rights	https://www.tesla.com/legal/additional-resources#global-human-rights-policy
Natural resources
Responsible mineral sourcing	"Tesla follows the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development ("OECD") Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Business Conduct, and the OECD Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Supply Chains of Minerals from Conflict-Affected and High-Risk Areas ("CAHRAs") when identifying, mitigating, and reporting risks within our value chain. Tesla requires its suppliers to establish policies, due diligence frameworks, and management systems consistent with these frameworks."	Tesla Responsible Sourcing	https://www.tesla.com/legal/additional-resources
Conflict minerals	"For all materials used in Tesla products, Tesla requires its suppliers to establish policies, due diligence frameworks and management systems consistent with the OECD Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Business Conduct, and the OECD Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Supply Chains of Minerals from Conflict-Affected and High-Risk Areas ("OECD Guidance")." Human rights due diligence and supply chain

Process for assessing human rights risks and impacts	"In fulfilling our responsibility to respect human rights, we are committed to implementing the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights. We conduct human rights due diligence to identify risks and work to mitigate them. We acknowledge that some groups are more vulnerable than others; our Policy and associated efforts take care to respect those most vulnerable or marginalized."	Tesla Global Human Rights Policy	https://www.tesla.com/legal/additional-resources#global-human-rights-policy
Heightened human rights due diligence in Conflict Affected and High Risk Areas (CAHRAs)	See Conflict Minerals
Affected stakeholder engagement	"We also engage external groups on a regular basis to seek feedback on this Policy and our responsible sourcing efforts. We encourage stakeholder engagement and are committed to considering feedback from affected stakeholder groups." "When managing non-compliance, as appropriate, first engage our suppliers, business partners, central or local government authorities, international organizations, civil society, affected stakeholders, and third parties to establish corrective action plans and drive corrective actions that help address the underlying issues and build capacity"	Tesla Responsible Sourcing	https://www.tesla.com/legal/additional-resources#global-human-rights-policy
Human rights requirements in supplier code/requirements	"The Policy [Tesla Global Human Rights Policy] outlines the core standards and expectations we have established for our facilities, business units, employees, suppliers, and business partners in the area of human rights. Tesla defines our suppliers as all companies or individuals involved in a supply chain producing goods and services for Tesla, whether directly or indirectly, as well as their personnel, agents, and subcontractors, referred to hereinafter as "suppliers." Access to remedy

Grievance mechanism for own employees	"We encourage employees to raise concerns, and Tesla does not tolerate retaliation in any form for good faith reporting or participation in investigations. An employee can raise concerns or complaints to any member of management, Human Resources, Employee Relations, or Global Compliance. Tesla documents concerns raised by employees to ensure follow-through and resolution. The case management system allows the appropriate teams to review data and consider proactive solutions. Tesla also has an Integrity Line reporting system that is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week"	Grievance and Remedy	https://www.tesla.com/legal/additional-resources#supplier-code-of-conduct
Grievance mechanism for workers - supply chain	"We expect our suppliers and their respective suppliers to implement an effective grievance management system for their operations, reaching suppliers' workers and their legitimate representatives. Suppliers must prohibit retaliation against individuals who raise concerns. Through third-party assessments, we evaluate whether grievance mechanisms and channels for workers to raise concerns are adequate, effective, and accessible. Tesla encourages its suppliers to consult potential or actual users on the design, implementation, or performance of their mechanisms."	Grievance and Remedy	https://www.tesla.com/legal/additional-resources#supplier-code-of-conduct
Grievance mechanism for external individuals & communities	"Tesla is committed to providing avenues for rights holders and rights defenders to raise potential concerns. We place importance on the provision of effective remedies if a human rights impact were to occur. In such instances, Tesla aims to implement updates to systems, due diligence processes, and practices to prevent similar adverse impacts in the future. As with other processes and systems, Tesla works to continually improve our grievance and remedy processes." Governance and staffing

Board and/or C-Suite-level oversight	"To Oversee Management and Evaluate Strategy. The fundamental responsibility of the Board is to exercise their business judgment to act in what they reasonably believe to be the best interests of Tesla and its stockholders. It is the duty of the Board to oversee management's performance to ensure that Tesla operates in an effective, efficient and ethical manner. Additionally, the Board has responsibility for risk oversight, with reviews of certain areas being conducted by the relevant board committees" "To Oversee Environmental, Social, and Governance Matters. The Board will review the effectiveness of the Company's environmental, social and governance (ESG) initiatives and programs, including its annual Impact Report and other related disclosures."	Corporate Governance Guidelines	https://digitalassets.tesla.com/tesla-contents/image/upload/IR-Corporate-Governance-Guidelines
Senior level responsibility for human rights	"Our work to respect human rights throughout our own operations as well as within our supply chain are overseen by cross-functional teams and executive representatives."
